

Monthly Calendar

2025 & 2026 | Fillable PDF | US Letter

The image displays a set of blank calendar cards for the months of October, November, December, January, February, March, April, and May. Each card is designed with a header for the month and year (2024) and a grid for the days of the month. The cards are arranged in a staggered layout, showing the months in a sequence. The cards for March, April, and May have a light blue background for the day grid, while the others are white. The text is in a clean, sans-serif font.
