

Pass the Prize

The host will read each line aloud and guests will follow the instructions in the poem to move the prize around!

1. Let's start this game and have some fun. Pass the prize to someone who is wearing yellow or orange like the sun.
2. The gift is not for you, you're going to have to share so pass it to the guest with the shortest hair.
3. We're all wondering who will win so here's your next clue, pass it to the one with the eyes of ocean blue.
4. Hold the gift and look around, pass it to the one who's newest in town.
5. Unfortunately, the gift is moving on so don't hold tight, next pass it to the woman who's tallest in height.
6. The wedding is almost here, so let's say some cheers and pass the prize to the one you've known the most years.
7. Roses are red, violets are blue, pass it to the one to the right of you.
8. The gift is getting heavy and needs to be carried, pass it to the one who is newest married.
9. You can't keep the prize, but please pass it on to the woman who is wearing white like a swan.
10. Keep it up everyone, the prize will soon be disappearing. Now hand it to the lady with the longest earrings.
11. You might have thought you had a shot, but pass it to the one who's about to tie the knot!
12. They say the best thing to hold onto in life is each other, pass the gift to someone who you know their brother.
13. Olaf said some people are worth melting for, now pass the gift to someone wearing shoes you can't ignore!
14. The date is upon us and the bride might be nervous, but the gift goes next to the one who drove the furthest.
15. It's about time to stop now, don't you agree?? The gift is yours to take home, YIPPEE!
