

A colorful poster for a children's service. At the top, a string of colorful triangular bunting (red, yellow, green, blue) hangs across the frame. Below it, a large white cloud shape contains the main text. Two rainbows are depicted on the left and right sides of the cloud. At the bottom, seven diverse children are shown jumping joyfully on a green grassy hill. The children are of various ethnicities and are wearing bright, casual clothing. The overall theme is joyful and welcoming.
